

Strangers in a Strange Land

Things We Carry on the Sea

Comprehension 2: Concrete and abstract words

The poem is a list with things immigrants carry on their journey. Some of the things are concrete and some of them are abstract. A diploma is, for instance, a concrete word, something you can carry physically, whereas a story is an abstract word, something that can only be carried mentally.

Make two lists with all the concrete and abstract words in the poem.

Concrete words	Abstract words
Diploma	Story
